Total revenues for the twelve months ended April 30, 2009 were $41.6 million or a 7% decrease compared to the prior fiscal year. Software license fees for the twelve months were $12.8 million or a 12% decrease compared to the prior fiscal year. Services and other revenues were $5.8 million or a 26% decrease compared to the same period last year. Maintenance revenues were $23.0 million or a 2% increase compared to the prior fiscal year. For the twelve months ended April 30, 2009, the Company reported operating earnings of approximately $8.7 million or a 5% increase compared to operating earnings of $8.3 million for the prior fiscal year.

GAAP net earnings were approximately $5.9 million or $0.45 per fully diluted share for the twelve months ended April 30, 2009 compared to net earnings of $6.0 million or $0.45 per fully diluted share for the prior fiscal year. Adjusted net earnings, which for the current period exclude stock-based compensation expense, acquisition-related amortization of intangibles expense and expenses related to the Logility tender offer, were $6.6 million or $0.51 earnings per fully diluted share for the twelve months ended April 30, 2009 compared to net earnings of $7.5 million or $0.56 earnings per fully diluted share the prior fiscal year, which excluded stock-based compensation expense, acquisition-related amortization of intangibles expense, a non-cash tax valuation adjustment, and write-down of capitalized software costs.

The Company is including adjusted net earnings and adjusted net earnings per share in the summary financial information provided with this press release as supplemental information relating to its operating results. This financial information is not in accordance with, or an alternative for, GAAP and may be different from non-GAAP net earnings and non-GAAP per share measures used by other companies. The Company believes that this presentation of adjusted net earnings and adjusted net earnings per share provides useful information to investors regarding certain additional financial and business trends relating to its financial condition and results of operations.

The overall financial condition of the Company remains strong, with cash and investments of approximately $49.6 million as of April 30, 2009. This is approximately a $2.3 million sequential increase in cash and investments compared to January 31, 2009 and approximately a $6.9 million increase compared to April 30, 2008.

"Logility completed a successful fiscal year 2009 and we are pleased with the Company's fourth quarter performance, delivering a 13% increase in operating earnings," stated J. Michael Edenfield, Logility president and CEO. "Despite the difficult global economy, we added 15 new customers and signed license agreements with customers in seven countries during the quarter."

"Our two-brand product strategy continues to be effective and enables us to meet the needs of small, medium, large and Fortune 1000 companies. Across both the Demand Solutions® and Logility Voyager Solutions™ brands, we welcomed 68 new customers and signed agreements with both new and existing customers located in 21 countries during the fiscal year," continued Edenfield.

"In a slow economy, businesses need to overcome global supply chain challenges, reduce costs and improve service," concluded Edenfield. "Our goal is to help customers take costs out of their supply chains by streamlining the sales and operations planning process, synchronizing supply with demand, improving forecast accuracy, automating transportation and warehouse operations and providing greater visibility to enable better decision-making."

As previously announced on May 22, 2009, American Software, Inc. commenced a Tender Offer to acquire all of the shares of the Company not owned by American software for $7.02 per share. The Tender Offer is scheduled to end at 12:00 midnight on June 25, 2009. For a complete description of the Tender Offer and its terms and conditions, please see the Logility, Inc. and American Software, Inc. filings at <http://www.sec.gov/edgar>.
